Employment Opportunity - 10.16.2026
Broadway Kids Director (Summer Youth Musical)

HOURS: Part-time in-person, hourly
COMPENSATION: $50-52 per hour, plus a $500 planning stipend
START DATE: Part-time in-person (August 2–6, 2026 | 9:00 AM – 3:30 PM daily, with a Friday performance at 2:00 PM)
LOCATION: Groton Hill Music Center

Groton Hill Music Center is the region's premier nonprofit center for outstanding music education, professional performances, and community engagement programs. Our Music School offers lessons in 30+ instruments and voice for all ages in all musical styles with a faculty of 90+ professional teaching artists.

We are currently seeking a dynamic Broadway Kids Director to lead our summer youth musical program. This individual will direct, stage, and music-direct a 30-minute mini-musical for children ages 9–12 over an intensive, high-energy one-week program.

PRIMARY AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY:

- Oversee auditions, casting, rehearsals, and direction for a 30-minute junior or mini musical. The program takes place over five days and concludes with a live showcase performance on Friday at 2:00 PM.
- Provide music and vocal instruction, teaching vocal parts, harmonies, timing, and dynamic expression appropriate for performers ages 9 to 12.
- Develop and teach age-appropriate blocking, staging, and choreography that highlights each student's abilities and ensures full participation.
- Maintain structured, positive, and inclusive rehearsals to foster creativity, teamwork, confidence, and discipline throughout the 6.5-hour program days.
- Collaborate with the Summer Programs administrative team to coordinate staging and performance logistics to ensure a seamless Friday showcase.
- Director will have to oversee interns and work closely with the music director on programmatic goals and overall production.

Groton Hill Music School faculty members are responsible for: 1) inspiring and sharing their love of music with their students; 2) setting a high bar for students' levels of technical skill and musicality; and 3) clearly communicating expectations and working toward shared goals.

Groton Hill offers many ancillary benefits to our faculty members, including a variety of paid professional performance opportunities and funding for professional development (by application). Timeliness and reliability, as well as strong communication practices with both students/families and school staff, are essential. This position could lead to other teaching opportunities at Groton Hill in the future.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Degree in Music Education, Musical Theatre, Performing Arts, or a related field.
- Background as an elementary to middle school music educator with demonstrated success in classroom management and youth vocal/musical instruction.
- Minimum of 3+ years of experience working directly with youth ages 9–12 in an educational or theatrical setting.
- Proven track record of directing or music-directing youth musical theatre productions.

HOW TO APPLY:

Please submit a cover letter, resume, and references to Laura Altenor, Community Engagement and Summer Programs Manager, at laltenor@grotonhill.org. Submissions without a cover letter will not be considered.
