Groton Hill Music Center is the region's premier nonprofit center for outstanding music education, professional performances, and community engagement programs. Our Music School offers lessons in 30+ instruments and voice for all ages in all musical styles with a faculty of 90+ professional teaching artists.

We are currently seeking two dedicated instructors to join our Community Engagement team for the upcoming Lawrence High School Band Program. This is a fantastic opportunity to mentor young musicians and foster a love for performance within the local community. We are looking to fill the following separate positions:

Percussion Instructor: This individual will lead group percussion sessions, focusing on technique, rhythm, and ensemble cohesion for middle school students. From battery basics to mallet percussion, your role is to build a solid foundation for these rising musicians.

Brass Instructor: This individual will provide group instruction for all brass instruments. We are looking for an educator who can help middle schoolers improve their tone, range, and technical proficiency in a collaborative, high-energy environment.

PRIMARY AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY:

- Delivering creative and effective percussion or brass instruction, in push-in and pull-out format, during Band rehearsals. This must include providing targeted feedback and coaching, delivering engaging instruction, adapting instruction to meet diverse learning needs, self-evaluating and integrating feedback, and appropriately supporting students with their Band music as necessary.
- Providing updates on student progress, addressing concerns, and collaborating on learning goals with the Band Director and Community Engagement and Summer Programs Manager.

Groton Hill Music School faculty members are responsible for: 1) inspiring and sharing their love of music with their students; 2) setting a high bar for students' levels of technical skill and musicality; and 3) clearly communicating expectations and working toward shared goals.

Groton Hill offers many ancillary benefits to our faculty members, including a variety of paid professional performance opportunities and funding for professional development (by application). Timeliness and reliability, as well as strong communication practices with both students/families and school staff, are essential.

This position could lead to other teaching opportunities at Groton Hill in the future.

QUALIFICATIONS: Ideal candidates should have a degree in music and a minimum of three years of teaching experience, the ability to model and teach proper percussion or brass technique, and to manage a classroom effectively and positively.

HOW TO APPLY: Please submit a cover letter, resume, and references to Laura Altenor, Community Engagement and Summer Programs Manager, at laltenor@grotonhill.org by October 20th. Submissions without a cover letter will not be considered.
